

H&T PRESSPART
Blackburn

VACANCY

Technical Applications Engineer

Report directly to the Global Business Development Director

Key skills and key accountability and objectives of the role are outlined below.

Key Skills

1. Project management customer based and internal
2. Product Knowledge of component portfolio both metal deep draw and plastic injection moulded parts.
3. Understanding of engineering manufacturing processes and 2nd operation equipment
4. Strong communication and team working skills to support the effective running of projects and support global sales team.

Key accountabilities

1. To plan and run component development projects
2. Customer faced meetings to give technical and design input for product development
3. Develop project plans in accordance with overall needs
4. NSPR (non-standard product request system)
5. NPI - New product introductions
6. Liaise with multifunctional teams from, technical, planning, quality, customer services and sales
7. Regular Meetings with Business Development team and Director
8. Attend Conferences and seminars in line with business needs
9. Support the functions of the Global sales team with technical and project updates / information
10. Take on Innovation activities with the Presspart group
11. Travel to customer sites and group sites for activities and meetings

Objectives

1. Ensure the continued support of NPI projects with the organisation across 3 sites PPB -(Blackburn) / PPM – Marsberg / PPT – Tarragona
2. Support Key account Managers in there interactions with customers and suppliers
3. Maintain a high standard of work and discipline within the project framework and all associated disciplines
4. Develop and maintain good relations with Global Sales team to ensure that they can deliver on time the customer requirements

Closing date for applications ~ Monday 10th February 2020

Please forward application to Jean Battersby, jean.battersby@presspart.com